By switching tariff, any free allowances of minutes, texts or browsing you currently receive will be replaced by the free monthly allowances outlined above in your chosen tariff and the standard call rates. If you switch tariff, you will not be able to switch back to your current call rates.

You can switch tariff once a month and your new free allowances will start from your next anniversary date, which is the date given to you the first time you top-up.

Your tariff also includes:

Standard calls¹

25p a min for the first 3 mins a day then 5p a min for the rest of the day

O2 mobiles

As Standard calls
